Personal Biography: Mark R. Chamblee

Mark Chamblee is president of Chamblee's Roses and Gifts, Inc. dba Chamblee's Rose Nursery. He and his wife Sharon own and operate Chamblee's Rose Nursery in Tyler and the Lott Home Bed & Breakfast in Mineola, Texas. Mark has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from the University of Texas at Tyler and has been certified as a Texas master Certified Nursery Professional through the Texas Nursery and Landscape Association. He currently serves as State Director of Region III of the Texas Nursery and Landscape Association. Mark is an active Farm Bureau member, currently serving on two state committees. He has become well known as a speaker across the State and an authority on rose growing, care and production. Mark works closely with Texas A&M University and Texas Agri-Life Extension in promoting the horticulture industry on local, state, and national levels.

Chamblee's Rose Nursery is a family business that has been producing fine quality roses from its Tyler, Texas location since 1953. It is an active nursery with active marketing that has always promoted Texas Grown products and Texas tourism. Chamblee's Rose Nursery has been a Texas Department of Agriculture GO TEXAN member since the program began.

Directed by consumer demand, Chamblee's Rose Nursery has focused on innovative rose production and customer satisfaction. This is exemplified by active participation in the EarthKind™ Rose Program, a project of Texas A & M Agri-Life Extension that has been endorsed by the Texas Nursery & Landscape Association and the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Chamblee's Rose Nursery is a member of many State and local associations and actively participates in Texas tourism. The Associations are listed below:
